WHY GEAR DECLINED TO RUN INDEPENDENT

His Letters to the Republican Territorial Committee.

PARTY ABOVE PERSONAL INTEREST

DESPITE ASSURANCES OF HIS ELECTION WOULD NOT BE A CANDIDATE.

Wanted First of All to See Party
Success and Then Work Within Party for Needed Changes.

Now when L. A. Thurston, owner of the Advertiser, who above all others is responsible for the defeat of Sam Parker and the legislative ticket in the Fifth district, is trying by falsehoods and misrepresentation, which are the usual tactics of the "devil's partner," to switch the minds of the people away from the real causes of republican defeat, it is well to read the correspondence between A. V. Gear and the republican territorial committee, which Mr. Gear has given out for publication. This correspondence shows where Mr. Gear and his friends stood in their efforts for republican success. Here are the letters:

Honolulu, October 20, 1900.

James A. Kennedy, Esq., Chairman Republican Territorial Committee:

Dear Sir—I have been urged by intimate political friends and a large number of voters to become a candidate for the territorial senate as an independent republican. These requests have become particularly urgent since the nomination of Henry Waterhouse on the republican senatorial ticket.

Being a firm believer in "party" I find myself in a very trying position and refer the matter to your committee for consideration and suggestion.

On one hand, a sufficient number of voters have voluntarily proffered their support to assure my election with the knowledge that I am a republican and a supporter of republican principles as expressed by the national and local organizations. A large proportion of these voters, as you are doubtless aware, absolutely refuse to vote for Mr. Waterhouse. This, of course, weakens the whole republican ticket and seriously threatens its defeat.

On the other hand, the question arises whether I as a republican, running independently of the organization, would in any way lessen the strength of republican candidates now practically sure of election.

The party harmony, to secure which I was willing to withdraw, has, as you know, been nullified if not utterly destroyed by more recent action of the nominating conventions. (The republican ticket as a whole cannot be elected.) I am therefore relieved from any obligations to be inferred from my action at this time. This is borne out by the numbers now urging me to run, who accepted the ticket as originally framed. Also by the fact that certain supposed supporters of the present ticket have openly advocated fusion with the democrats.

At no time have I sought a legislative nomination, and while personal preference would lead me to remain out of the field, I feel that in justice to those urging my candidacy and election I cannot remain indifferent to their request. You will doubtless appreciate the necessity of immediate action on your part. Respectfully yours, A. V. GEAR.

Honolulu, H. T., Oct. 23, 1900.

Whereas, this committee is in receipt of a communication from A. V. Gear, Esq., addressed to the chairman of this committee, stating that he has been urged by a large number of voters to become a candidate for the territorial senate as an independent republican, and referring the matter to this committee for consideration and suggestion;

Now, after due deliberation had thereon it is

Resolved, That, because of Mr. Gear's position in the republican party and his strength as a republican leader, and because of the confidence in him as a loyal man, this committee would regret to see him appear as an independent candidate and would suggest that he advise his friends that such a step on his part would jeopardize the success of the party and seriously injure his usefulness as a republican.

Honolulu, H. T., Oct. 23, 1900.

A. V. Gear, Esq., Honolulu:

Dear Sir—Enclosed please find copy of a resolution passed by the executive committee of the territorial committee of the republican party at a meeting held on that date. Very respectfully,

JAMES A. KENNEDY, Ch'm.

E. R. HENDRY, Sec'y.

Honolulu, H. T., Oct. 23, 1900.

J. A. Kennedy, Chairman Republican Territorial Committee:

Dear Sir—Yours of Oct. 23 enclosing resolution passed by the executive committee is acknowledged.

After due deliberation I have decided to inform my friends that I consider the interests of the republican party of more importance than that of any man, and the principle it stands sponsor for will be best served by my refraining from accepting an independent republican nomination for the territorial senate.

Your action relieves me from any responsibility for any of the universally recognized weak points in the republican senatorial ticket. My action should convince you of the utter falsity of the impression emanating from members of the executive committee that I was personally instrumental in instigating the petition to which I have drawn your attention. I believe that the republican party is greater than any man, and that its success is of more importance than the fulfillment of the ambition of any man or men representing a minority whose acts or personal opinions are not acceptable to the people. True party harmony consists in harmonizing candidates with popular sentiment, giving the opinion of one honest voter at least equal weight with an almighty dollar. As you consider that this has been accomplished, I abide by the results with you, hoping that republican principles will triumph at the polls, a triumph that will only be secured by the election of a republican majority from Oahu to the house and senate.

I cannot agree with you that my candidacy as an independent republican would "seriously injure" my "usefulness as a republican." The character and number of those urging my candidacy is of such a nature that I need have no fears on the personal grounds you mention. At no time have I considered the situation from the standpoint of prejudicial personality. My single purpose, aim and desire in this campaign is to secure the success of the republican party. It is with this end in view that I accept the opinions of the party managers, hoping that they have acted in equally good faith and with equal disregard for personality at a time when defeat is by no means an impossible eventuality. Yours very truly, A. V. GEAR.

Money Back if You Say So!

Some men wear just what they please; others wear what other men affect. There is a certain style which most men regard as proper, and one must be independently rich or hopelessly poor to utterly ignore the dictates of fashion. One great point about our clothing which ought to appeal to every man who would be well dressed is that it is so well made and so entirely in accord with the right fashion without being costly.

It has all the merchant tailor's distinctiveness; is, in fact, tailor-made; but is much less expensive than the so-called custom-made apparel.

SUSPENDERS

The top notch of excellence, the low water mark in prices; that's the way it is in our splendid furnishing department. As typical of values here, we note today a strong line of MEN'S SUSPENDERS made of excellent elastic webbing of new designs, with leather-trimmed, cast off or nickel plated mountings—equal in make-up to the usual 75c or $1.00 kinds.
